

Lawrence Dwight is a fifth generation land manager and beef producer in Ferndale, California. He owns and leases 8600 acres within the Eel River, Mad River, Van Duzen River and Beaver River watersheds. The Dwight Family has been raising beef cattle on the North Coast since 1850. A graduate of Ferndale High, Dwight attended California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo in Animal Science. Dwight is a past second vice president of the California Cattlemen's Association and is also a member of the California Farm Bureau Federation, Humboldt County Farm Bureau, the Humboldt County Fair Board. He served on the California Department of Fish and Wildlife Coho Recovery Team and is a Past President of the Humboldt-Del Norte Cattlemen's Association. He has one daughter, Josie, who hopes carry on the family business.